PHOTOS

#1. Mr. & Mrs. Gordon Fore with their winner at the Bruce Parnell Chapter show. Their name is all over the show reports/ They grow all their prize winning hibiscus in the south part of the state near Homestead.

#2. Mr. H. H. Grenwald won the best amateur category with "Happiness" at the James E. Hendry Chapter show in Ft. Myers.

#3. Mr. Kent Duve (L) and C/M Sgt. Charles Harlan admire the sergeant's winner at the Lantana show staged by the Sunrise Chapter.

#4. Mr. Sam Buser and a few of his hibiscus at the Annual Membership Meeting. He won with "Geisha Girl" at the Miami show.

#5. Mrs. Lillian Bloeser (L) and Mrs. Kent Duve at the Lantana show. Mrs. Bloeser's bloom "Helen Walker" was picked the best old favorite and Mrs. Duve won the tri-color in the arrangement section.

#6. Mrs. Lillian Gadd walked away with the amateur sweepstakes at the James E. Hendry show.

-oOo-

A man bought a parrot and, in trying to make him talk, kept repeating, "Hello! Hello!" Finally, the parrot opened one sleepy eye and asked, "What's the matter? Line busy?"

-oOo-

If we can't beat Harry, let's beat Pete!

-oOo-

A golfer is a guy who can add two plus two and come out with a par-3.

=OoO=

1

2

3

4

5

6